

Cannon Poets

Who are Cannon Poets?

We're a lively group whose members get together every month to share our love of poetry.

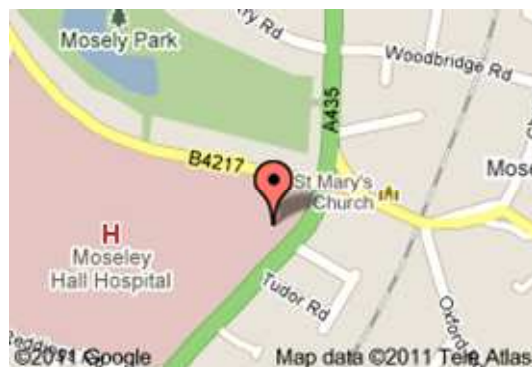

Founded in 1983 at the Midlands Arts Centre in Cannon Hill Park, Cannon Poets are still at the cutting edge of the increasingly popular art form. We have regularly hosted events at Readers' & Writers' Festivals and more recently have taken an active part in the Birmingham Artsfest and National Poetry Day. Our members contribute to many poetry events including the Moseley, Edinburgh and Ledbury Festivals. Several members have also become Poet Laureate. So why not come along and join us – just to observe if you like.

When?

Face to Face meetings now occur on the first Sunday of alternate months from 2.00 pm to 5.00 pm and Zoom meetings on the intervening months on Sunday from 3.00 pm to 5.00 pm. Please see our website as these arrangements are subject to change.

Where?

When we have face to face meetings, we meet at Moseley Exchange, The Post Office Building, 149-153 Alcester Road, Moseley, Birmingham B13 8JP.

What else do we do?

The Cannon's Mouth

We publish a quarterly magazine, The Cannon's Mouth ISSN 17456630 [£15.00 p.a. - free to members]. The Cannon's Mouth contains poems written by members and people from all over the world, articles, reviews and useful information related to all aspects of poetry.

Whether you are a member of Cannon Poets or not, you may send poems or poetry related material for publication in The Cannon's Mouth directly to the editor by email. Please either attach up to 5 poems in a single 'MS Word' attachment or put them in the email itself: greg@cannonpoets.org.uk If you wish to submit poems or poetry related material by post, please use the address below.

Annual Poetry Competition Sonnet or Not

Our annual poetry competition, Sonnet or Not attracts entrants from all over the UK and beyond. Entries accepted either by post or online between March and October each year. [closing date 31st October]. See www.cannonpoets.org.uk/Competitions for details.
