Submissions from outside the UK

We welcome submissions from outside the United Kingdom in line with the guidelines on page 5. Unfortunately, due to the cost of postage, successful contributors from outside the UK [including the European Union] who have computer access will only receive a digital copy of the magazine [in pdf format] instead of a hard copy. If non-UK contributors whose work is published want a hard copy, we will send one by post as soon as we receive payment of £7.00 [Sterling] as a contribution to the full cost of UK postage. Payment can be made on line.
